Pro Vice Chancellor Research Scholarship

(Living Allowance)

BOND UNIVERSITY
GRADUATE SCHOOL OF RESEARCH

About

The PVC Research (PVC) scholarship provides a living allowance of $26,140 per annum paid as a fortnightly stipend whilst undertaking a higher degree research at Bond University.

Eligibility

This scholarship is available to all applicants of exceptional research potential, both domestic and international. Applicants must have completed, or expect to complete, four years of higher education studies at a very high level (e.g. First Class Honours or equivalent) and be intending to enrol full-time in an approved doctoral or research masters program.

Part time awards may be offered to students who, for social or medical reasons, are unable to study full time.

Duration

The PVC may be held for up to two years for a research masters program and up to three years for a doctoral program. . The duration of the award may be increased by any periods of approved leave.

How to apply

Applicants must submit the following to the Bond University Graduate School of Research

New applicants :

- A Scholarship application form (including two academic referee forms)
- Original or certified transcripts
- Research outline
- 500 word personal statement
- Curriculum vitae (CV)
-

Current students :

- A Scholarship application form
- Updated research outline
- Copies of publications (where applicable)
- 500 word personal statement
- Curriculum vitae (CV)

Closing date

Applications for the 2012 Scholarship round must be submitted by 5 pm on 30 September 2011.

Applications may be submitted at any time before this date, however they cannot be considered until after 30 September 2011.
Applicants will receive notification of the receipt of the scholarship application two weeks after the closing date.

To accept a scholarship applicants must commence candidature between 1 January and 31 March 2012.

Further information

For further information please email : bugsr@bond.edu.au