PROQUEST
Database Guide

Proquest is multidisciplinary database that covers many subject areas including business and economics, health and medical, news and world affairs, technology, psychology, criminology, and military.

Finding Proquest on the Library Website

To access Proquest, click the Electronic Resources link on the Bond University Library homepage (http://www.bond.edu.au/library-and-online-resources/search/electronic-resources/index.htm) and select it from the A-Z List or a Field of Study area.

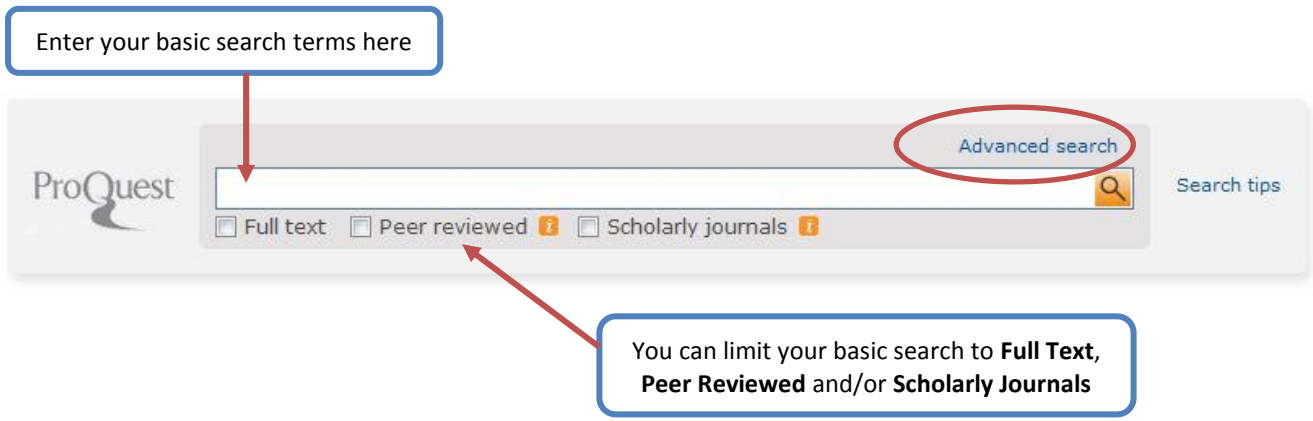
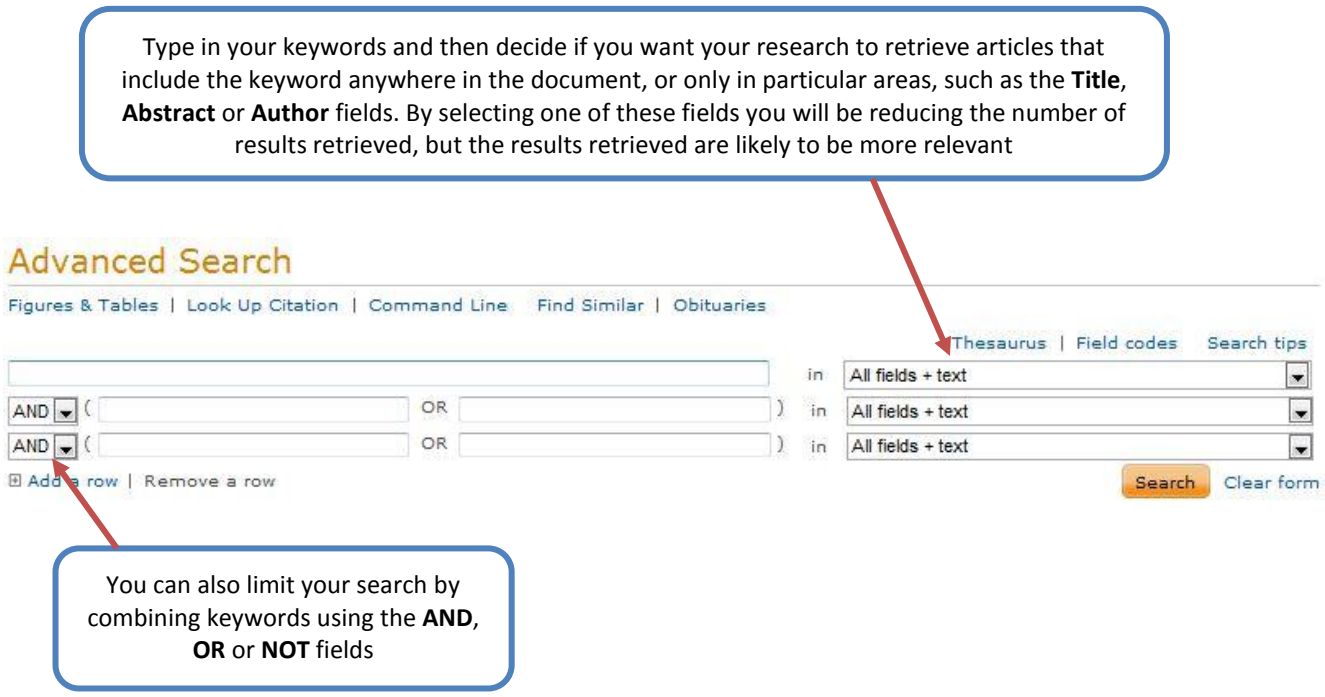
Searching for Articles

Basic Search:

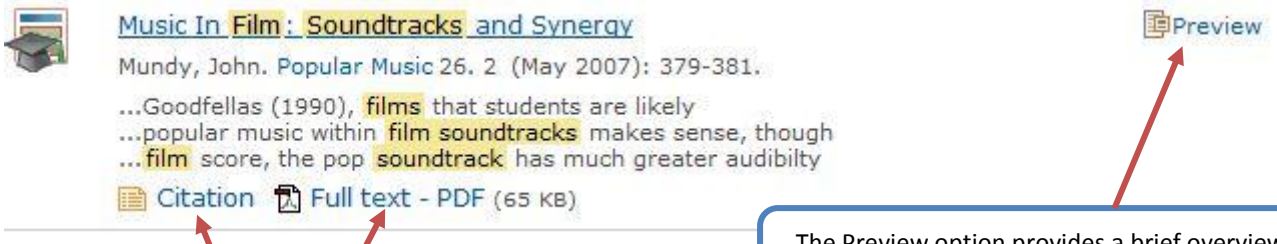


Advanced Search:



Viewing your articles

Click on the title to go directly to the full text



The Preview option provides a brief overview of the article without leaving the results page

You can also click the Citation/Abstract link for a summary of the article, or you can choose the Full text – PDF option

There are a number of ways you can filter your search:

At the top of your search results Proquest provides a list of Suggested Subjects that will link you to other articles in that subject area

Sort your results by Relevance or Publication date

Narrow your results using the range of drop down menus

You can also narrow your results by date using the graph or by entering a Specific Date Range

Printing/Emailing/Downloading Articles

Use the bar at the top of your search results to Email or Print your selected articles

Use the Cite or Export/Save options for referencing shortcuts. You can choose from a range of referencing styles. Export/Save will send the citations to your Endnote or Refworks account

NEED MORE HELP? ASK AT THE LIBRARY DESK!

facebook.com/bond.librarycomputing

bulibrary.blogspot.com