

CALL FOR PAPERS

Corporate Law Teachers Association (CLTA) Conference 2012 (hosted by Bond University, Gold Coast, Australia)

(<http://www.bond.edu.au/events/> or <http://www.clta.edu.au>)

CORPORATE LAW IN TIMES OF CHANGE

5-7 FEBRUARY 2012

The Corporate Law Teachers Association and the Faculty of Law at Bond University invite the submission of papers for presentation at the forthcoming conference which will be held on the theme Corporate Law in Times of Change. This will cover contemporary issues in both Corporate Law and Corporate Governance in the light of the Global Financial Crisis. These issues will include board diversity, insolvency and business judgement and reforms.

All papers related to the main theme will be considered.

The keynote speaker for the 2012 Conference will be:

- Professor Douglas Branson, one of the leading US commentators on Corporate Law and Corporate Governance

He will speak on his work on Women on Boards in the USA. There will be Australian and New Zealand commentators.

Another plenary session will be a panel discussion on Globalisation, the GFC and the Reinvention of the State.

Visitors and participants from overseas are welcome and it is hoped to include a session on overseas reforms.

ABSTRACT RECEIPT DATE

Papers will be selected on the basis of an abstract of no more than 150 words. Abstracts should be submitted by email to Professor John Farrar, <jfarrar@bond.edu.au> by Monday 28th November 2011. Abstracts should include the author's name, position and institutional affiliation.

For those wishing to participate in the Best Paper Prize, which is sponsored by Chartered Secretaries Australia, the deadline for submission of eligible papers is Monday, 23rd January 2012. See <http://www.clta.edu.au> for further details on this prestigious prize.

Please note: The acceptance of a paper for the Conference does not imply that the costs for attending the Conference or the Conference Registration Fee will be covered by the CLTA or the conference host. The CLTA only provides the forum for discussing issues relevant to corporate law and attempts to keep its fees to a minimum to encourage greater participation. Therefore, all participants are expected to cover their own costs.

GENERAL ENQUIRIES

For further general information regarding the 2012 CLTA Conference, please contact Rosa Riedl (riedl@bond.edu.au) or Mairead Courtney (mcourtne@bond.edu.au).

For further information: visit the CLTA website: <http://www.clta.edu.au/>