

QTAC APPLICATIONS

How to order your preferences to be considered for an early Bond University offer

Bond University's fast tracked degree courses commence in January 2012. To accommodate Bond University's earlier semester start date, QTAC releases early offer rounds on December 1 and 15.

These early offers will only be sent to those who have nominated a Bond University course as their first preference. As such, you will need to ensure you nominate Bond as your first preference. For information on ordering your preferences in line with the early offer rounds, check out the QTAC 'Ordering your preference' video - Example 2.

RESPOND TO YOUR OFFER / REVIEW YOUR PREFERENCES

Upon receiving an offer in the December offer round, you must accept the offer before you can commence enrolment at Bond University.

STEP-BY-STEP TO APPLYING TO BOND UNIVERSITY THROUGH QTAC.

- 1 Please lodge your application through the Queensland Tertiary Admissions Centre - www.qtac.edu.au.
- 2 Bond University does not rely solely on university entrance scores, rather it adopts a broad range criteria to assess applicants.

To assist in this assessment, please complete the Bond University additional information form online. This form can be found at www.bond.edu.au/additional-information.
- 3 Your Regional Manager will contact you for interview. View the contact information for your nearest RM on the Regional Managers - Australian Applicants page. This page can be found at www.bond.edu.au/contact-us.
.....
- 4 Bond University will assess your application.
.....
- 5 Once your application has been assessed, you will receive advice from Bond on the success or on the outcome of your application.
