WELCOME

Welcome and thank you for choosing to study at Bond University.

We look forward to sharing your stand out journey from today, through to your graduation.

Orientation is a great opportunity to meet other students and get to know your way around campus. It also offers lots of activities and workshops to help you find your feet and reach your full potential at university. We hope over the next few days you'll become familiar with Bond, the campus and surrounds.

I encourage you to participate in as many events as possible, and take advantage of the range of services available.

We are here to support and assist you with any questions or information you may need - please just ask.

TEXTBOOKS, STATIONERY AND PRINTING

Head over to the Bond University Bookshop in the back of the Main Library to purchase your textbooks and stationery. Merchandise can be purchased from the Merchandise Store in the Alumni Centre, Building 1, Level 1. Find your textbook list on iLearn or come into the Bookshop and ask for assistance with finding the right books for your first semester.

Email sales@bondunibookshop.com.au for more information.

In the back of the Main Library you will also find the Bond Print Shop, where you can log orders through the self-serve printing page in the Student Portal (portal.bond.edu.au/printing).

ORIENTATION CHECKLIST

If you are unable to enrol, visit Admissions in Building 9 to confirm your admission status. Remember to bring your documentation with you.

Admissions, Building 9, Level 1.

✓ Enrol in your subjects and register for classes

This is where you get to choose what you're going to study in your first semester and design your class timetable. We'll have staff at several locations on campus to walk you through this step.

Full-degree Students

Tuesday and Wednesday:

Building 1, Level 1, Room 72 and Room 74 (BLD01_1_72 and BLD01_1_74)

Thursday and Friday:

Student Business Centre, Building 9, Level 1

Study Abroad and Exchange Students

Thursday to Friday:

Office of Future Students, Building 6, Level 1

✓ Smile and strike a pose for your Student ID Card

Once you have enrolled, upload a photo to CaptureME studentid.bond.edu.au for your Student ID Card.

Once you receive confirmation that your photo has been approved, collect your Student ID card from Don's Tavern Games Room in Building 10, Level 1
Monday - Friday: 9am - 4pm
Wednesday: closed between 10am - 12.30pm

Activate your Student ID and get your parking permit from Security, Building 10, Level 1.

✓ Get connected to Bond's IT Network

If you haven't already, activate your Student IT account after completing the above steps by visiting newstudent.bond.edu.au. After accepting the terms and conditions and creating a new password, you'll be all set to access your email and campus WiFi.

Activate your printing account at the John & Alison Kearney Main Library or Law Library using your Student ID Card at the printer.

Get Connected with IT Sessions are held on Thursday in the Main Library's Octagon Room - Building 1, Level 2, Room 60 (BLD01_2_60). For session times, please see page 13.

✓ Be welcomed to campus

An exciting introduction to Bond University, featuring the Yugambah Aboriginal Dancers, a scavenger hunt and lunch provided. This event is compulsory for all new students, so clear your appointments at 10am on Wednesday to attend.

Attend the Official University Welcome on Wednesday from 10am - 1pm at Sports Hall, Building 10, Level 2.

Please note that Enrolment Assistance, Student IDs and Admissions Checks will be closed during the Official Welcome.

✓ Attend your Orientation Welcome Session

Learn about your Faculty and meet other students in your cohort. These sessions are also compulsory, but you'll walk out knowing everything you need for Week 1 and a successful first semester.

✓ Get social

Topgolf, Movie World, Dive-In Movie Night and a Nature Walk are just some of the things we have in store for all our new Bondies.

Some events have a limited number of tickets available. So make sure you register to attend the Fun Stuff before tickets sell out and registrations close! bit.ly/201OrientationSocialEvents

DON'T FORGET!

✓ FEELING LOST?

If you're lost, have questions, not sure where you should go next or just want a friendly face to talk to, visit one of our Orientation Hotspots where our Student Ambassadors will be happy to assist you.

Tuesday and Wednesday: Under the Arch and Student Court

Thursday: Under the Arch, Student Court and various locations throughout Building 6.

✓ ID CARDS

Once you have enrolled, apply for your Student ID Card by uploading a photo to CaptureMe studentid.bond.edu.au. You will receive email confirmation that your Student ID Card has been approved and is ready for collection. Once approved, head to Don's Tavern Games Room in Building 10, Level 1 to collect your card.

Monday to Friday, 9am - 4pm

Wednesday closed between 10am - 12.30pm

Activate your Student ID and get your parking permit from Security, Building 10, Level 1.

✓ REGISTER FOR THE FUN STUFF

Some activities have limited tickets available so be sure to register for the Fun Stuff events you would like to attend bit.ly/2010OrientationSocialEvents.

✓ HOW TO READ ROOM NUMBERS

(Example only)

✓ MAKING FRIENDS

Starting university is an exciting but sometimes daunting experience. We recommend the following tips to set you off on the right foot:

- Attend as many social events during Orientation as possible (marked under the daily 'Fun Stuff' lists)
- Connect with students who share your interests by attending Club Sign-On Day (Wednesday, 22 January from 12pm - 2pm)
- Try out some group fitness sessions at the Bond University Sports Centre
- Join the Transformer Program and get involved in a project with students from other study disciplines
- Follow the Bond University Student Association (BUSA) on Facebook and Instagram for information about student-run events on and off campus

✓ CLUB SIGN-ON DAY

Club Sign-On Day is your chance to sign up and get involved in a variety of student clubs and societies. There's over 100 to choose from. Check out the details below!
